

Differential equations

After completing this section, students should be able to do the following.

- Define a differential equation.
- Verify solutions to differential equations.
- Find numerical solutions to differential equations using Euler's method.
- Understand how a slope field can be used to find solutions to a differential equation.